

Parkland Ukrainian Dancers Society

June 5, 2024

Parkland Ukrainian Dancers Society (PUDS) is seeking a Co-Instructor to join our club starting September 2024.

- Days and hours are Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 5:15pm-9:30pm, with the occasional weekend workshops throughout the season.
- Dance instruction and barre warm up experience preferred but not necessary. Experience and basic knowledge in Ukrainian dance are a must.
- You will be responsible to co-create and create your own choreography, teach choreography and technique to the various classes and age ranges, along side our current instructor.
- Administrative duties will consist of answering emails and tracking and submitting your hours and expenses. There will also be the occasional meetings with the Executive Board and parents of dancers and dancers themselves when necessary.

PUDS has been an active dance club in the community for over 41 years. Our club currently has 52 dancers ranging from ages 3 to adult and we pride ourselves in being a family-oriented club that provides various dance and theatrical experiences in the different regions of Ukraine while keeping the traditions of Ukrainian dance at the core of our instruction.

Within a typical dance year, we attend at least 3 competitions, with one requiring travel and hotel stays. We also participate in various local performances either by sign-up or invitation, these include but are not limited to, nursing homes, schools, town and private functions, and other community venues. We also perform within our community and the surrounding tri-region during our regular season of September – June with the occasional summer performances and/or festivals. PUDS holds two of its own events each season, our annual Malanka that falls between January and February, and our Year End Recital.
